The 234th meeting at Mitcham Golf Club saw our Captain Tim Wareham drive-in successfully, hitting the first tee shots in both the morning and the afternoon.

Despite a poor weather forecast there was only a couple of minutes of fine rain in the morning and we were treated to some warm sunshine in the afternoon.

Members were very complimentary about the quality of the course particularly the greens and the refurbished changing rooms.

There were only 9 members in attendance for the morning 9 holes. Playing in 3's the best 2 scores counted on each hole. Even though there were only 3 groups it took a countback to decide the winners.

A further 11 members competed in the afternoon singles. We welcomed 2 new members, Justin Naish and Nick Pikesley, and it was the latter who took the honours. Playing off a 10 handicap, Nick collected 4 birdies in a back 9 holes of 2 under par gross to finish with 41 points.

The longest drive was by Justin Sutton and nearest to the pin was George Thorne.
