Guest Day this year was held at Nizels Golf Club, the Society's 236th meeting. As an experiment, the normal 36 hole format of morning singles and afternoon greensomes was changed to a 9-hole greensomes in the morning with the singles competitions in the afternoon.

The weather forecast had been a little worrying but in fact we had only a slight drizzle occasionally during the day, the cloudburst waited until the golf had finished and we were in the safety of the bar.

The course is reasonably challenging and well laid out but the grass on the greens was seeding making them rather slower than most players would like.

We were well looked after all day with good catering etc.

The morning competition for the Machell Shield was won by for the second year running by Alan Miles and Alan Blower. But the star of the day was Matthew Kitcherside, guest of Doms Cleveland – see results below.

For the members, Captain Tim continued his winning ways by capturing the John Knight Trophy with Alan Miles runner-up.

The booby prize must go to myself, my guest and Dennis Lomas. Staggering towards the end of our game we got to the 18th tee and Dennis hit his tee shot left into the long grass and my guest said that he'd hit it there in the morning. None of us realised that we were on the 6th tee and sure enough Dennis had repeated his earlier shot. We carried on playing this par 5 instead of the par 4 18th unaware of our mistake until we reached the green when we saw that the notice for the next hole pointed to the 7th tee. Chastened, we were fortunately in buggies so we could drive the mile or so across country to the sanity of the clubhouse.

The full day's results are as follows :-
