Selsdon Park scribe, capt.chimp.

The finals meeting ,October 4th, was at Selsdon Park , the same venue as the same meeting ,the same date 50 years ago.

I would like to thank Tracy for all her efforts and for being a wonderful Captain this year, especially as she was still unable to play but came along to walk round and preside over the evening's events. Also thanks to George for the work he does on our behalf, as Hon. Sec. Of course thank you to one eyed Dennis Lomas our Chairman. I hope everyone , especially our walking wounded, will be fit and well for next season. Alan Miles received an engraved hip flask to celebrate,his 100th meeting.

The House Final was won by Cribbs (Dave Stallard and Tim Wareham) who defeated Duttons in the dark at the 3rd extra hole.

The Bantick match play final, including some inspired golf, was won at the 18th hole by Perry Harley defeating Frank Smith by half an inch. On sandy bumpy greens Perry sank a plethora of putts to win - well done!

The prize winners in the stableford competition for the Dennis Lomas Cup were :-

3rd place with 35pts Justin Sutton

2nd place with 36pts Trevor Cain

And the winner who scraped home with 45pts was Len Cleveland, a truly wonderful score – well done!

The Longest Drive. Alan Miles

Nearest the Pin no.1 Andre Cutress

Nearest the Pin no.2 Steve Poole

The Hotel and staff gave us a good evening meal and we had a fine turnout of 26 members .See you all at the AGM , George will send you details.

Yours, capt.chimp.

Thank you Paul. He also walked round the course and is recovering well from his shoulder injury.
