That's better ! At last the weather behaved itself for a Golf Society meeting. The sun shone at Epsom – it was hot at lunch, cooled down a little during the afternoon with wispy clouds and a light breeze but the sun broke through later on for a warm evening. The course is remembered for the numerous road crossings with fast moving traffic, for it's panoramic views of London in the distance, for only having 1 bunker, by the 18th green, and for it's large, undulating greens which were fairly slow but still very tricky. This didn't however affect our 6 guests who had an average score of 34.8 points, the best being Andre Cutress' guest, John Newton, with a spectacular 42 points. The members didn't fare so well, the best being Alan Miles with 37 points. It was generally agreed that this was a very pleasant venue, we were looked after very well and that we do like the sun on our backs !
