PRE-EMPLOYMENT CHECKS

All offers of employment are made subject to the receipt of references satisfactory to the School, proof of qualifications (where relevant), proof of eligibility for employment and a decision based on an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service. Depending upon the nature of the post, successful applicants will be required to provide written confirmation from their GP at the school's expense, or to self-certify that they are medically fit to fulfil the duties of the post as outlined.

THE WELFARE, PROTECTION AND SAFETY OF PUPILS

Alleyn's School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

- The successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced disclosure from the DBS.
- A copy of the school's Child Protection Policy is included with the application form.
- As part of our selection process short-listed candidates should expect us to seek to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies in the information provided by them or arising from their references.
- The interview process will explore candidates' suitability for working with children and their previous experience in such roles.

CHILDREN ACT, 1989

The Children Act, 1989 places a statutory obligation on schools to safeguard and promote the welfare of children attending them. Accordingly, the Governors of Alleyn's School require all new appointees to provide the following information.

Has the Secretary of State for Education ever issued you with a personal warning or caused your name to be included on List 99 which names those who may not be employed in schools?

Yes

No

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT, 1974

The post for which you are applying involves substantial opportunity of access to children. It is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974. You are therefore required to declare any convictions, cautions or bind-overs you may have had, (unless they would ordinarily be filtered out in line with current guidance*) regardless of how long ago and even if they would otherwise be regarded as 'spent' under the Act. You are also required to declare any outstanding case(s) against you.

You should be aware that the School will institute its own checks with the Disclosure and Barring Service and DCSF. Please submit information in confidence, enclosing details in a separate sealed envelope which will be seen only by the Headmaster. Failure to declare a conviction may disqualify you from appointment or result in summary dismissal if a discrepancy comes to light.
