

2014-2015 Alleyn's School Public Benefit

2,500 hours of public access this year

450 hours use of our performing arts facility per year

Over 40 sporting and non-sporting activities, involving over 3,000 people, supported through our Friends and Community programme

Use of Facilities

Bursary Support: We fund over 60 means-tested bursaries and are fundraising to increase that number.

Alleyn's Benevolent Fund: 22 educational trips and courses have been fully or partly funded for bursary recipients.

EMA Equivalent Payments: We continue to provide discretionary financial support to pupils in Years 12 and 13.

Woodcraft Folk Youth Group work with children to promote confidence, understanding about the world and how to value each other.

London School's Cricket Association regularly use the sports hall for winter nets and play numerous representative fixtures on the School's pitches.

Numerous community activities held, involving National Youth Choir of GB, British Red Cross, Encountering Faiths and Beliefs Forum

Three local junior schools use the performing arts facility to host end-of-year productions.

Local primary schools use the fields and athletics track to host sports days, involving over 2,000 pupils.

Southwark Community Education Council's Saturday Maths Scheme: Maths extension for gifted pupils from local primary schools.

Sydenham and Forest Hill Sixth Form Link: A new initiative exploring collaboration between departments.

Ogden Trust - Southwark and Lambeth Physics Partnership: A new partnership between Alleyn's, Imperial College and state schools to maximise enrichment in Physics.

Volunteering: Year 10 pupils from Alleyn's volunteer weekly at local primary schools, Dulwich helpline, Fun Fizz (special needs centre for young adults) and Elm Talk (home for the elderly).

Rhythm for Reading: Year 12 students from Alleyn's act as reading mentors to Year 4 pupils at state Primary Schools as part of an innovative music and literacy project.

Southwark Schools Learning Partnership: a consortium of maintained and independent schools promoting links across the sectors.

The Resources for Autism charity use the pavilion during the summer holidays to provide respite for parents and siblings of families with autistic children.

Southwark Volunteer Police Cadets promotes leadership and citizenship. Cadets assist in the community.